Jas. C. Booth Esq.,
U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir:

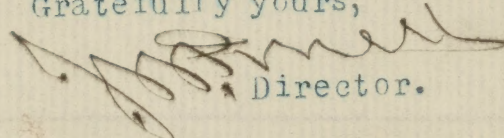

I have great pleasure in acknowledging receipt of your elaborate sketch of your geologic survey of Delaware, and in assuring you that with the preliminary schedule of inquiries submitted sometime since it appears to completely cover the ground of my inquiries.

Permit me to express my appreciation of your kindness in in co-operating with me in this work, and making so important a contribution to it despite the multifarious cares and duties of a public office. You were the only individual who could supply the information required, and most fully and satisfactorily have you done so.

Believe me to remain,

Dear Sir,

Gratefully yours,

Director.
